

CAROLYN + ASHISH

THE BEACH HOUSE | KAUAI

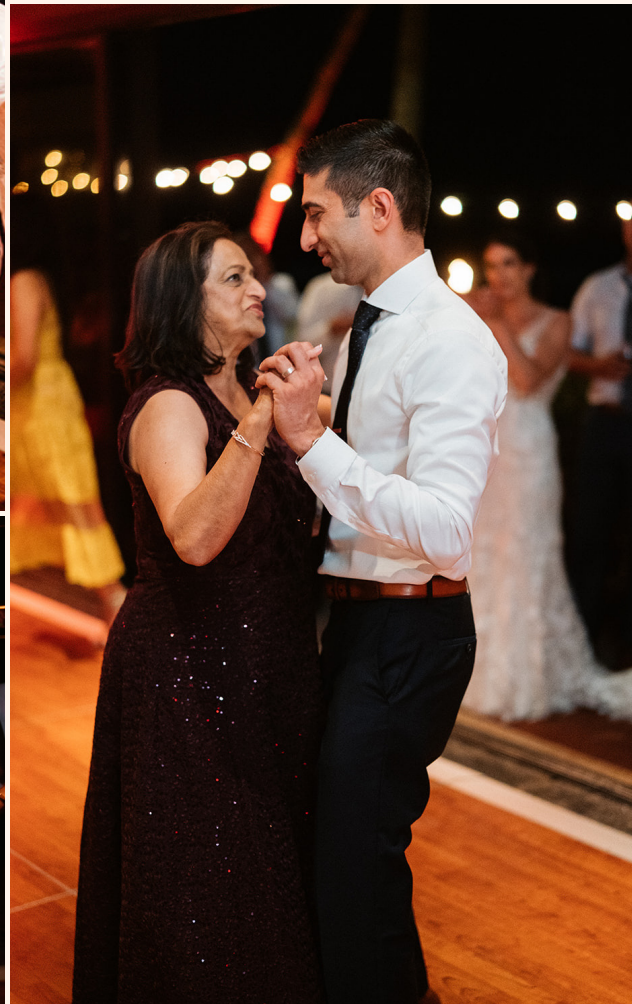

Our oceanfront property hugs the Poipu Beach coastline, where the Patel & Coghlan ohana watched the most breathtaking sunset.

Guests were able to watch their favorite couple share their "I dos" while casually watching locals surf behind them. What more could you ask for of a destination wedding. It was truly an epic celebration of Aloha.

When Ash proposed to Carolyn, he had a box of handmade seattle chocolates with an inscription "Will you marry me?" paired with photos of them on a monumental hike they had done a year earlier. To add a personal touch to their wedding they gifted each guest these same handmade chocolates.

Congratulations Carolyn and Ash, we wish you a lifetime of happiness and endless amounts of chocolate!
